

East Troy Lions Public Library

Photography Release Policy

The East Troy Lions Public Library (hereafter simply referred to as "The Library") occasionally uses photographs of patrons and events in its publications, advertising, press releases and on the Internet, including but not limited to, its website. Please sign this Release to grant the Library permission to use your and/or your child's image.

I hereby grant permission to the Library to use my image on the Internet, including but not limited to, its website, advertising, press releases or in other publications without further consideration, and I acknowledge the Library's right to crop or treat the photographs at its discretion. I also acknowledge that the Library may choose not to use my photograph at this time, but may do so at its own discretion at a later date.

I also understand that once my image is posted on the Internet, the image can be downloaded.

By signing this Release, I acknowledge that I hereby release and forever discharge the Library and the trustees, officers, agents, and employees of the Library from and against any and all claims, damages or suits which may arise from the use of photographs by the Library in publications, promotional material, or on the Library website or other Social Media applications. I acknowledge that the Library need not receive any further permission, approval, or authorization from me in order to use my image.

The Library reserves the right to discontinue use of any photograph without notice. By signing this Release, I represent that I am eighteen years of age or older and have voluntarily chosen to grant these rights to the Library. The rights and obligations under this Release shall be binding upon my heirs and successors in interest. I may terminate this Release by providing written notice to the Library of such termination. The Library may continue to use any materials prepared or photographs taken before receipt of my termination.
